PATRIOT ACT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each business and each person that has control over the business when opening an Account.

What this means for you – When you open a Business Account, we will collect all documents required to establish the validity of the business entity and its tax identification and we will collect the name, address, date of birth, and social security number of each person having full power over the Business Account at the Credit Union. In addition, each person will be required to provide a valid identification with a picture enabling us to validate their identity. You agree that we have the right to verify the information you give us with external sources for validation. If your mailing address is a post office box, you must also provide us with your physical address.

UNIVERSAL ACCOUNT AGREEMENT FOR BUSINESS ACCOUNTS

This Universal Account Agreement, the Signature Card, the Business Account Signature Card and Resolution Agreement (if applicable) along with our current Schedule of Fees contains the rules and conditions that govern your Account(s) with Achieva Credit Union. The paragraph headings are for convenience only and do not form a part of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is deemed invalid, the rest of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect. This Agreement amends, replaces and supersedes any prior Agreements. Please read this Agreement carefully and keep a copy and call us if you have questions.

Agreement – By signing the Signature Card, you hereby make application for membership in the Achieva Credit Union, agree to conform to its bylaws and amendments thereof, copies of which are available to you, and to subscribe for at least one share, the value of which shall be determined from time to time by the Credit Union’s Board of Directors. You agree that the Agreement set forth herein contains the various types of accounts and services offered and shall govern your use of such accounts and services. This Agreement amends, replaces and supersedes any prior agreements. Each account is subject to such other items, conditions, rules, and requirements as the Credit Union’s Board of Directors may establish from time to time. Changes will be effective on the date that the Board specifies or as otherwise required by law. The Business represents and agrees that this Agreement and all Accounts of the Business are established and shall be used solely for commercial, corporate, agricultural or other business investment or venture purposes, and are not established and shall not be used for personal, family or household purposes.

Changes to the Agreement – The Board of Directors may amend the terms of this Agreement from time to time, including but not limited to, rules, products and procedures. We will notify you of such changes if required by law. The changes will be effective on the date specified or as otherwise required by law. You may not modify this Agreement without prior written approval from us. No representation or statement made by any employee of ours shall be binding upon us unless it is made in writing and signed by an authorized officer. Each Account is subject to such other items, conditions, rules, and requirements as the Credit Union’s Board of Directors may establish from time to time and changes thereto will be effective on the date that the Board specifies or as otherwise required by law.

Membership – To be eligible for membership in the Credit Union, you must be an individual or entity qualifying within the Credit Union’s field of membership and must purchase and maintain one share (“the membership share”) as required by the Credit Union’s Bylaws. You authorize us to check your account, credit, and employment history, and obtain a credit report from third parties, including credit reporting agencies, to verify your eligibility for the accounts and services you request. You agree in advance that we may monitor your credit history and other information. You may withdraw shares only by using the methods that have been approved by us, provided that our failure to enforce this provision in any instance shall not be a waiver of our right to enforce it in the future. If you reduce your balance below the par value of one share, you will be terminated from membership according to our rules and bylaws.

Governing Law – This Agreement is governed by the bylaws of the Credit Union federal law and Florida law and regulations and clearinghouse rules as amended from time to time.

Backup Withholding and Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) – Federal law requires that you provide us with your Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN). For most individuals, your TIN is your social security number. For businesses, this will usually be your Employer Identification Number. This number will be used when reporting the dividends you earn on your Account(s) to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). You understand that failure to provide this number will subject dividends and certain other payments paid to you under certain circumstances to backup withholding. Falsification of your TIN is a violation of federal law. If you have provided us with your TIN, you will not be subjected to backup withholding unless:

- (1) The IRS notifies us that your TIN is incorrect;
- (2) You are notified by the IRS that you are subject to backup withholding because you failed to report all your interest and/or dividends on your tax return;
- (3) You failed to certify to us that you are not subject to backup withholding on your Membership Application; or
- (4) You failed to certify your TIN on the Membership Application.

OWNERSHIP

Business Accounts – Business Accounts are those established by any partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association or other entity operated on a for-profit basis; all corporations and associations operated on a not-for-profit basis; all governmental units; and any individual who intends to use the Account as a sole proprietor for any trade or business. The classification and form of ownership of a Business Account are as designated on the Signature Card. The business and each person who signs the Signature Card, any resolution or any other separate written authorization concerning an Account, represents to and agrees with the Credit Union that (a) the business has taken all actions necessary to open and maintain the Account, (b) all resolutions or other authorizations given to the Credit Union by or on behalf of the business are true, accurate and complete in all respects, (c) all assumed or fictitious names used by the business have been duly registered or filed with the applicable governmental authorities, and (d) each person whose name is written or printed on the Signature Card, any resolution or any other separate written authorization concerning the Account has complete authority to bind the business in all transactions involving the Account. The business agrees to notify the Credit Union promptly in writing of any change in its form or jurisdiction of organization or ownership or in the authority of any person with respect to the Account or any transactions relating to it. The Business agrees further that any Officer Signer and/or Authorized User has authority to act on behalf of the Business until (i) notice of any revocation, change or amendment is received by the Credit Union, and (ii) the Credit Union shall have acknowledged to the Business in writing that it has received a revocation, change or amendment. The Credit Union reserves the right to require a partnership, corporation or other legal entity to give separate written authorization telling us who is authorized to act on its behalf.

Checks Payable to a Business – We require that checks payable to a business may not be cashed, but must be deposited to a Business Account. We will not be liable for any breach of fiduciary duties arising from a transaction by any authorized agent of the Account owner(s), unless we have actual written notice of any wrongdoing of such agent.

Cash Back on Business Deposits – Only Sole Proprietorship Business Accounts may be allowed to receive a portion of their business deposit back as cash depending on the type of item being deposited, the length of time the Account has been held with us, and the history of the Account activity. You will be required to sign for the cash received in the presence of the Credit Union employee processing the transaction, and you may be required to produce acceptable identification. You may be asked to deposit an item to your Account instead of being allowed to cash the item. Funds from a deposited item may not be immediately available. We may also require an item to be sent for collection before crediting your Account or we may refuse to accept the item.

ACCOUNTS IN GENERAL

Savings (Share) Accounts – This Account is established when application for membership is accepted. The purchase of one share is required to open this Account. Only Official Signers for the Account have voting privileges and the Business is entitled to only one vote. Please refer to the Rates Sheet and Business Schedule of Fees to determine applicable fees and minimum balance requirements for these Accounts.

Sub-Accounts – All sub-Accounts opened under the primary Savings (Share) Account, and including Certificates of Deposit, will be titled under the same Business name.

Checking (Share Draft) Accounts – We offer different types of Checking Accounts. The fees charged on these Account types vary. Please refer to the current Schedule of Fees to determine fees, minimum balance requirements, and monthly service charges.

Payment of Items – We are under no obligation to pay any Item that contains a suspected forgery or alteration and, in such an event, we will incur no liability for any action regarding the nonpayment of any Item. You agree that in no event will the Credit Union be liable for damages for the dishonor of any Item as long as we act in good faith and exercise ordinary care, regardless of whether you have a balance in your Account sufficient to pay any Item that we fail to pay. The Credit Union will not be liable for any loss resulting from any reasonable delay in sending notice to you that the Item has been returned uncollected or if we pay an Item containing an alteration or a forged or unauthorized signature including, but not limited to, forgery or alteration resulting from the unauthorized use of a facsimile signature stamp or machine. You agree that we are not required to examine any Item before paying the Item.

Statement – The Credit Union will make available to you monthly periodic statements that will show balances and transactions (including fees, dividends and interest as applicable) of your account(s). Statements are available to you electronically at no cost once you register and activate our e-Statement service. Statements are also available by the U.S. postal service for a fee. Please refer to our current Schedule of Fees for the cost of receiving your statements by mail.

Problem on Statement – You agree that each statement is sufficient to allow you to reasonably identify transaction Items without indicating the payee of any Item. You have a duty to examine each statement and discover any Items containing unauthorized signatures or alterations. If you discover any Items on the statement that differ from your records, you must promptly notify the Credit Union. Failure to notify the Credit Union within a reasonable time frame, not to exceed 30 days, after each statement is made available will prevent you from recovering on the Item.

Statement Items and Retention – You understand that your original items will not be returned to you. You are responsible for examining each statement and reporting any error or inaccuracy to the Credit Union. If you wish to receive a copy of any paid Item charged to this Account, we will provide it for you and you agree that we may charge for such service. You also agree that the availability of obtaining a copy of a paid Item, upon request made to the Credit Union, constitutes a reasonable manner in which the Credit Union may make available paid Items. We may charge your Account for this service in accordance with the Business Schedule of Fees established by our Board of Directors. You agree that the Credit Union's retention of Items does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements or alter the time limits for notifying the Credit Union of any forgery, alternation, errors or objections.

Stale-Dated Items – A stale-dated check is a check bearing a date of at least six months in the past. We have the right to pay or return a stale-dated check you have written. If you do not wish for a stale-dated check to be paid from your Account, you must place a stop payment on the item.

Omission and Errors – You agree the Credit Union shall not be responsible for the acts or omissions of any other party selected in connection with this Account or the condition of any Item, draft or other Item handled under this Account subject to the Credit Union's duty to exercise ordinary care.

Certificate of Deposit Accounts – Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed so as to make the Certificate Account a demand deposit, and we reserve the right to require at least seven days written notice of an intention to withdraw any funds represented by a Certificate. This notice time may be increased according to our bylaws or under applicable laws. You will receive a receipt for the funds deposited in the Certificate Account you establish with us. The receipt is merely evidence of your Certificate Account with us and is nonnegotiable and nontransferable. Certificate Accounts may not be pledged, transferred or assigned to any party other than this Credit Union.

Money Market Accounts – You shall be permitted to establish a Money Market Account according to the terms of this section and other applicable provisions contained in this Agreement or by policy established by the Credit Union. You authorize us to honor your withdrawals and transfer requests against the funds in your Money Market Account. You agree that all provisions relating to your Checking Account as stated herein, shall apply to your Money Market Account, in addition to these rules. Please refer to the Rates Sheet and Business Schedule of Fees to determine applicable fees and minimum balance requirements for these Accounts.

Overdrafts – Although we are under no obligation to pay any Item that exceeds the fully paid and collected balance in the Account, we may, at our option, pay such Item even though it may cause an overdraft in the Account. By covering one or more overdrafts, we do not agree to cover overdrafts in the future and may discontinue covering overdrafts at any time. If we decide to pay an item that overdraws your Account, you agree to immediately pay the overdraft amount plus a fee as disclosed in the Business Schedule of Fees. In the event there is a negative balance, each Official Signer and Authorized User on the Account and each Account owner are jointly and severally liable for the negative balance, any fees incurred, and interest thereon. The Credit Union may charge the amount of the negative balance against any other Account from which any of you, jointly or individually, are entitled to withdraw money, amounts or establish a credit advance pursuant to any credit agreement between you and the credit union.

Negative Balance – If your account balance remains negative, you agree that an Extended Negative Balance Fee as disclosed in our Schedule of Fees will be charged to the account on the 5th calendar day of the negative balance and every 5th calendar day thereafter until the balance is repaid in full. Each Official Signer and Authorized User on the Account and each Account owner are jointly and severally liable for the negative balance, any fees incurred, and interest thereon. The Credit Union may charge the amount of the negative balance against any other Account from which any of you, jointly or individually, are entitled to withdraw money, amounts or establish a credit advance pursuant to any credit agreement between you and the Credit Union.

Stop Payments – You must request in writing that we stop payment on any Item. Unless renewed, a written stop payment will expire after six (6) months. Your stop-payment order must be received at such time and in such manner as to afford us a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to any other action being taken on the draft. You agree that in order for us to have a reasonable opportunity to act, we must receive your stop payment request at least two (2) business days before the draft is received by us for posting to your account. The term “business day” does not include any Saturday, Sunday, or federal holiday, even though our office may be open. We may charge you a fee for each stop-payment order you give. We, in our sole and complete discretion, may honor oral requests for stop payments. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse to honor any requests to stop payment. You agree that unless you give the correct Account number, Item amount and Item number the Credit Union assumes no responsibility for stopping payment. If the Credit Union credits your Account after paying an Item over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to assist the Credit Union if it takes legal action upon the Item. You agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Credit Union against all claims, costs, attorney’s fees, damages, and other expenses or losses that may be incurred by the Credit Union, its employees, or agents on account of a stop payment order. You do not have the right to stop payment on a cashier’s, teller’s check, certified funds, or any Item issued by the Credit Union.

Official Signers – The Business agrees that any Official Signer is allowed to perform any transaction on behalf of the Business with respect to any Account established by the Business, including but not limited to, applying and closing Deposit Accounts, opening and closing Accounts, requesting and managing loan Accounts, depositing funds and withdrawing funds by and available means, and transacting any business of any nature with the Credit Union.

Each Official Signer is hereby authorized on behalf of the Business and in its name to endorse for deposit with the Credit Union, whether in demand or time accounts, or for negotiation or collection, any and all checks, drafts, notes, certificates of deposit or other instruments or orders for the payment of money payable to the Business, which endorsement may be in writing, by stamp, or otherwise, with or without designation or signature of the person so endorsing, it being understood that on all such items all prior endorsements are guaranteed by the Business, irrespective of the lack of an express guarantee in the endorsement of the Business.

The Business approves and ratifies any and all acts committed by any Official Signer with regard to any and all accounts established by the Business. The Business also authorizes the Credit Union to pay drafts, checks, notes, orders or withdrawals or to receive the same for credit or in payment for the payee or any other legal holder when so signed, without inquiry as to the circumstances of the disposition of their proceeds, whether drawn to the individual order or tendered in payment of individual obligations of an Official signer. You agree that any action by any Official Signer shall constitute action by you.

Authorized Users – The Business agrees that any designated Authorized Users shall be made on the Business Account Signature Card and Resolution Agreement and may be made by any Official Signer. The Credit Union is hereby authorized and directed to honor the designation of Authorized Users for any transaction of the Business on any Account established by the Business, including but not limited to, depositing funds and withdrawing funds by any available means by which funds are withdrawn from the Credit Union, issuing stop payments, endorsing all drafts, certificates, checks or any paper or other instruments and transacting any business with the Credit Union.

Each Authorized User is hereby authorized on behalf of the Business and in its name to endorse for deposit with the Credit Union, whether in demand or time accounts, or for negotiation or collection, any and all checks, drafts, notes, certificates of deposit or other instruments or orders for the payment of money payable to the Business, which endorsement may be in writing, by stamp, or otherwise, with or without designation or signature of the person so endorsing, it being understood that on all such items all prior endorsements are guaranteed by the Business, irrespective of the lack of an express guarantee in the endorsement of the Business.

The Business approves and ratifies any and all acts committed by any Authorized User with regard to any and all accounts established by the Business. The Business also authorizes the Credit Union to pay drafts, checks, notes, orders or withdrawals or to receive the same for credit or in payment for the payee or any other legal holder when so signed, without inquiry as to the circumstances of the disposition of their proceeds, whether drawn to the individual order or tendered in payment of individual obligations of an Authorized User. You agree that any action by any Authorized User shall constitute action by you.

DEPOSITS IN GENERAL

Funds mailed to the Credit Union are deposited when received. Funds deposited in ATMs and night deposit boxes (hereinafter "non-staffed depositories") are considered received when removed from the depository and processed pursuant to the Credit Union's procedures. If you make a deposit in person on a business day that we are open, we will usually consider that day to be the day of your deposit. We may provisionally credit your Account for the amount declared on the deposit slip, subject to later verification by us. ALL deposits are conditional upon further verification. You must ensure that the amount declared on the deposit slip is correct even if you did not prepare the deposit slip. If later we determine that the amounts declared on the deposit slip are incorrect, we may adjust (debit or credit) your Account. We report adjustments on your Account statement. All deposits of non-cash items credited to this Account will be credited conditionally, subject to final payment, and such items may be charged back from any Account in which you have an ownership interest or the right to withdraw, at any time until the proceeds thereof in money (U.S. Dollars) have been actually received by us. If any Item deposited in an Account is returned unpaid, you are jointly and severally liable to the Credit Union for the amount of the returned Item and any charges, regardless of who deposited the Item or benefited from the transaction. We shall not be obligated to notify you that an Item has been dishonored or not otherwise collected. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items at any time, including giving a payor any extra time beyond any midnight deadline. The Credit Union will only be responsible for recognizing the identification of the drawer and financial institution on an Item deposited in the Account, and the amount of the Item. We will not be responsible for recognizing any conditions of payment contained on an Item deposited to or drawn on an Account, including, but not limited to, restrictive endorsements or postdated Items. If you make a deposit, transfer, or payment at a nonstaffed depository, you agree that the correct amount in the event of discrepancy between a written receipt or deposit slip will be the amount that we found in the bag, envelope or disposable plastic bag used to make the transaction.

Deposit of Remotely Created Checks – A remotely created check is a check created by someone other than the person on whose Account the check is drawn, and is typically created when the owner of a Checking Account, either over the phone or online, authorizes a telemarketer or billing company to draw a check made payable to the telemarketer or billing company on the owner's Account, without the owner actually signing the check. In place of the owner's signature, the remotely created check usually bears a statement that the owner authorized the check or bears the owner's printed or typed name. If you are in the business of depositing remotely created checks based on the authorization of others, you must obtain the Credit Union's prior express written consent to deposit those checks in your Account.

Night Depository Deposits – Night depository service is provided as a convenience for you. Achieva Credit Union is not an insurer of, nor is it required to maintain insurance on, the night depository or its contents. The night depository is to be used only for the deposit therein of cash and checks, drafts or other items intended for deposit to your Account. A deposit slip must be included. You expressly agree to accept as final and conclusive the record of the Credit Union as to what property was in the bag when opened and the count of the Credit Union shall be final and binding. Furthermore, the records of the Credit Union indicating receipt or non-receipt of a bag in the night depository shall also be binding. Deposits made at the night depository must be placed in disposable plastic tamper proof bags available for purchase from us. A fee will apply per each bag deposited. Please refer to our Schedule of Fees for the current fees. The Credit Union may refrain from opening any bag showing signs of tampering or otherwise appearing suspicious in any regard, until you and/or the appropriate authorities are present. The Credit Union reserves the right to terminate the privilege of night depository services at any time and for any reason.

Direct Deposits – We may offer direct deposit options allowing you to pre-authorize deposits or transfers from your Accounts with us but you may not authorize third parties to make ACH deposits or withdrawals unless you have been given the Credit Union's consent and have executed an ACH Service Agreement. If the Credit Union deposits any amount in your Account(s) which should have been returned to the Federal Government for any reason, you authorize us to deduct the amount of the Credit Union's liability to the Federal Government from any Account from which you have the right to withdraw. If you wish to cancel a direct deposit or preauthorized transfer, you must notify us at least 30 days prior to the next scheduled date of such transaction. If we deposit any amount in your Account by mistake, you authorize us to deduct the amount from your Account at any time without prior notice. Fees – A list of the fees and other charges that may be applicable to your electronic fund transfers is disclosed on our current Business Schedule of Fees.

Endorsements – Each of you appoints any Official Signer and/or Authorized User as your attorney-in-fact for any purpose including the power to deposit funds and for that purpose to endorse any Item payable to any Account owner. You authorize the Credit Union to supply any endorsement for you on any Item or other instrument tendered for your accounts. We are relieved of any liability in connection with collection of such Items that are handled by us without negligence, and we shall not be liable for acts of our agents, subagents or others, or for any casualty. You agree to indemnify us from any loss due to an endorsement or other writing placed on an Item in an incorrect manner under the Federal Reserve's Regulation. You are responsible to provide the endorsement on all non-cash items you deposit. If your endorsement is missing, you authorize the Credit Union to supply any endorsement for you on any Item or other instrument tendered for your Accounts. We do not assume a duty to enforce multiple signature requirements that you may agree upon among yourselves. If you indicate on your checks that more than one signature is required for withdrawal, this indication is for your own internal procedures and is not binding on us. We may disregard any instructions to permit withdrawals only upon more than one signature with respect to checks, electronic fund transfers or other debit/withdrawal requests. We may pay out funds from your Account if the check, item, or other withdrawal or transfer instruction is signed or approved by any one of the persons authorized to sign on the Account.

Electronic Storage of Documentation and Electronic Signatures – You agree that it is unnecessary for the Credit Union to retain the original of any document. You agree that the electronically stored image of any document is the original of that document, and that any document provided to you is a copy of that document. Electronic Signatures: You agree that no pen-upon-paper signature is necessary to authenticate your agreement with any document which is retained by the Credit Union, but that the Credit Union may rely upon an electronic version of the signature of any owner or Authorized Person. You agree that the Credit Union may obtain the signature of any owner or Authorized Person by the use of an electronic device upon which an owner or Authorized person inscribes such person's signature or by the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) which may be recorded and stored with or upon the electronically stored image of any document relevant to this Agreement.

Inactive/Dormant Accounts – An Account will be considered inactive when there has been no activity other than dividend postings during the past twelve months. It will become dormant after twenty four (24) months of such inactivity, You agree that once your Account becomes inactive after 12 months of non-activity, an Inactive Account fee will be charged for continuing to process your Inactive/Dormant Account as set forth in our Schedule of Fees. You authorize us to transfer funds from another Account of yours to cover any service fees, if applicable. To the extent allowed by law, we reserve the right to transfer the Account funds to an Account payable and to suspend any further Account statements. If a deposit or withdrawal has not been made on the Account and we have no other sufficient contact with you within the period specified by state law, the Account will be treated as abandoned. Funds in abandoned Accounts will be reported and remitted in accordance with state law. Once funds have been turned over to the state, the Credit Union has no further liability to you for such funds, and if you choose to reclaim such funds, you must apply to the appropriate state agency. Inactive/Dormant Accounts with a zero or negative balance may be closed at the option of the Credit Union.

Closing an Account – Before you can close an Account, you must cancel all direct deposits and any other automatic deposits. You must also stop payment of any automatic payments from your Account. If we agree to close your Account, you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless for the amount of any loss resulting from closing your Account. If you close your account within 180 calendar days of opening, you agree to pay an Early Account Closure Fee as set forth in our Schedule of Fees. The Credit Union may close your Account(s) without prior notice due to overdrafts which the Credit Union in its sole discretion considers excessive, for misuse of the Account, for the committing of any fraudulent act, or for other good reason so determined by the Credit Union in its sole discretion.

Termination of Account – The Credit Union may terminate your Account at any time without notice to you or may close your Account or ask you to apply for a new Account if: (1) there is a change in owners or Authorized User; (2) there has been a forgery or fraud reported or committed involving your Account; (3) there is a dispute as to the ownership of the funds in the Account; (4) Cards or checks are lost or stolen; (5) excessive overdrafts; (6) misrepresentations and/or abuse of your part; (7) if we reasonably deem it necessary to prevent a loss; (8) your Account balance remains negative over 30 days; and (9) your Account usage is not consistent with the intended purpose of the Account. You may terminate the Account at any time by notifying the Credit Union in writing. The Credit Union reserves the right to require the consent of all multiple owner Account owners for termination of a multiple owner Account. As long as we act in a manner consistent with good faith and the exercise of ordinary care, we may refuse to honor any request to close your Account. The Credit Union is not responsible for payment of any Checking Account withdrawal, or other Item after your Account is terminated; however, if the Credit Union pays an Item after termination, you agree to reimburse the Credit Union for the payment. We have the right to terminate any Account and to terminate all of our liability hereunder by mailing a check or draft for the balance of this Account to the address on file of any Account owner. If the Credit Union is forced to institute suit against you as a result of a breach of this Agreement or as a result of an overdraft, you agree to pay attorneys' fees of 10% of the unpaid balance or a greater amount of reasonable attorneys' fees plus other costs involved in enforcing the Agreement.

Termination of Membership – You may be denied services or expelled from membership for any reason allowed by applicable law, including causing a loss to the Credit Union. You may voluntarily terminate your membership at the Credit Union after giving notice of your intent to withdraw from membership and withdrawing all funds on deposit as legally required of the Credit Union.

Death of a Sole Proprietorship Owner – The Credit Union may continue to honor all transfers, withdrawals, deposits, and other transactions on the Account until the Credit Union is notified in writing of the owner's death. Once the Credit Union is notified of an Account owner's death, the Credit Union may pay Items or honor other payments or transfer orders authorized by the deceased member for a period of ten (10) days unless the Credit Union receives instructions from any person claiming an interest in the Account to stop payment of all remaining outstanding Items on the Account. You agree the Credit Union can require that anyone who claims funds in your Account after your death to indemnify the Credit Union for any losses actually or potentially resulting from honoring that claim. This Agreement will be binding upon any heirs or legal representatives of the Account owner.

Set-Off/Statutory Lien/Security Interest – You agree to and grant as security for all obligations you have with us, except obligations secured by your principal residence, any or all of the funds in any Account, now or in the future, in which you have an ownership interest or the right to withdraw funds without regard to any statutory presumption regarding ownership, without the requirement that the debt be owed by such Account Owner, and regardless of who contributed the funds to the Account. To the extent you owe the Credit Union money as a borrower, guarantor, and endorser or otherwise, the Credit Union has a statutory lien, and by this document a consensual lien, on any or all of the funds in any account, now or in the future, in which you have an ownership interest or the right to withdraw funds without regard to any statutory presumption regarding ownership, without the requirement that the debt be owed by such Account Owner, and regardless of who contributed the funds to the Account. The Credit Union may enforce this lien, by freezing Account funds, without any further notice and prior or subsequent to a default, even if an overdraft, dishonor, or interest penalty results. You may not withdraw shares that are security on loans without written approval of a Credit Union Loan Officer, except to the extent that such shares exceed what you owe to us or which you are contingently liable to us. All Accounts are not assignable and nontransferable to third parties, unless otherwise agreed to by us in writing. In the event of a default, we may apply the balance said funds to any obligation you have with us.

Address and Notices – Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement, you agree to promptly notify the Credit Union upon a change of physical address, e-mail address, or name in a form acceptable to the Credit Union. Indicating a change of address on a check reorder form is not considered notice of a change of address. The Credit Union is only required to attempt to communicate with you at the most recent address you have provided to us. We may require any changes to be in writing. If we are unable to locate you due to incorrect addresses or name, we may impose a fee for attempts to locate you. If we are unable to locate you, you agree that a Bad Address processing Fee as set forth in our Schedule of Fees will be imposed on a monthly basis until your correct address is received. If any statement, voucher, notice, or other mail is returned to the Credit Union as "Undeliverable" by the U.S. Mail, you authorize us to destroy it. Failure to notify the Credit Union of any change in address is a default under the terms of this Agreement.

Notices – Any written notice you give us is effective when it is actually received by us. Any written notice we give to you is effective when it is made available electronically or when deposited in the U.S. Mail, postage prepaid and addressed to you at your statement mailing address. Notice to any one Account Owner is considered notice to all Owners of the Account.

Check Orders – The Credit Union is not obligated to honor checks printed by other printing companies than the check company authorized by the Credit Union if the items do not conform to our printing standards. The Credit Union may not be able to read Items printed by others. You authorize the Credit Union to debit your Account for the cost of checks ordered with our authorized printer.

Miscellaneous Provisions – We reserve the right, at any time and at our complete discretion, to require you to give, in writing, no more than 60 days notice of intention to withdraw the whole or any part of the amounts so paid in by you. You agree that we shall not be responsible for any delay in performance hereunder resulting from events beyond our control including, but not limited to, computer, transportation, communication or equipment failure, delays caused by another party, fire, flood, or other acts of God, war, or nature. If we have to institute suit against you as a result of a breach by you in this Agreement or as a result of an overdraft, you agree to pay our costs of collecting the debt, including, but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees and court costs. You agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Credit Union, its employees, and agents from and against any and all loss, claim, or damages, including reasonable attorney's fees, that we may incur on your behalf, except as may be attributable to the Credit Union's lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care. The Credit Union reserves the right to waive any term in this Agreement. Any such waiver shall not affect the Credit Union's right to enforce any right in the future.

We may require Account changes requested by you, such as adding or closing an Account or service, to be in writing and signed and the same must be evidenced as accepted by us at our discretion. In the event of a dispute over ownership or control of the Account, you authorize us to file legal action, including an interpleader, involving the funds into a court of competent jurisdiction for a determination of ownership. You authorize us to deduct our costs and expenses involved in filing the legal action, including attorney's fees, from the Account funds and to file the remaining sum with the court.

Arbitration – Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement and/or Account shall be settled by binding arbitration. You further agree that any such arbitration shall take place in Pinellas County, Florida. Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered by any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitrator shall determine the prevailing party, and the costs and expenses of the arbitration proceeding, including the arbitrator's fees, shall be borne by the non-prevailing party, unless otherwise required by law. No provision of this Agreement, nor the exercise of any right under this agreement, shall limit the right of the Credit Union to: (1) obtain provisional or ancillary remedies, such as injunctive relief, writ of attachment, or protective order from a court having jurisdiction before, during, or after the pendency of any arbitration, (2) exercise self-help remedies, such as set-off; (3) foreclose against or sell any real or personal property collateral by the exercise of a power of sale under a mortgage or other security agreement or instrument, a deed of trust, or applicable law;

YOU FURTHER AGREE THAT YOU ARE WAIVING THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY AND TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY DISCLOSURE

This policy disclosure describes your ability to withdraw funds at Achieva Credit Union. It only applies to the availability of funds in “transaction Accounts” subject to Regulation CC. Generally, transaction Accounts are Accounts that do not limit the number or types of withdrawals or transfers that may be made from the Account such as Checking Accounts. The Credit Union reserves the right to delay the availability of funds deposited to Accounts not governed by Regulation CC for periods longer than disclosed in this policy.

General Policy – Our policy is to make funds from your deposits available to you on the same business day that we receive your deposit, when possible. To determine funds availability, every day except Saturday, Sunday or a federal holiday is considered a business day. If you make a deposit in person before closing on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit on a day we are not open, we will consider the deposit made on the next business day we are open. Availability does not guarantee ultimate collection of non-cash funds. Any dishonored instrument(s) will be charged back against any of your savings, checking, or money market Accounts. U.S. Treasury Checks payable to you, wire transfers, including preauthorized credits such as social security benefits and payroll payments, and Items drawn on the Credit Union will be available on the first business day after the deposit. Deposits made in person to one of our employees, cash and funds from Federal Reserve Bank Checks, federal home loan checks, postal money orders, state and local government checks, cashiers’, certified and tellers’ checks will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit if they are payable to you. If you do not make your deposit in person to one of our employees (for example, if you make your deposit at an ATM or the Night Deposit drop), funds from that deposit will be delayed to the next business day that we are open. Funds from any deposits (cash or checks) made at an ATM we do not own or operate may not be available until the fifth (5th) business day after the day of your deposit. Funds from deposits made at ATMs that we own or operate will be available on the second (2nd) business day after the day of your deposit. All ATMs that we own or operate are identified with our name.

Right of Hold – In some cases, we may not make all of the funds that you deposit by check(s) available to you on the day of your deposit. If we delay the funds, we will make the first $200 of your deposit available to you no later than the first business day after the day we received your deposit. The remainder will be available on the second business day after the day we received your deposit. For example, if you deposit a $700 check in person to one of our employees on Monday, $200 of the deposit is available at the latest on Tuesday. The remaining $500 is available on Wednesday. You will be notified if we place a hold on item(s) you deposited. If your Account at the Credit Union has sufficient funds in its balance to cover the amount of the check(s) we intended to hold, we may give you immediate availability on the check(s) if you intend to cash them but we will delay availability for a corresponding amount from the existing funds in your Account.

Longer Delay – Funds you deposit by check may be delayed for up to seven (7) business days after the day we received your deposit under the following circumstances;

- (1) We believe a check you deposit will not be paid;
- (2) You deposit checks totaling more than $5,000 on any one day;
- (3) You deposit a check that has been returned unpaid;
- (4) You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months;
- (5) There is an emergency, such as a failure of communications or computer equipment.

If we do impose such a delay, we will always notify you with the reason(s) and tell you when the funds will become available.

New Accounts – If you open a new account, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days your Account is open. Funds from electronic deposits to your Account will be available on the next business day after the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, and federal, state and local government checks will be available on the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to the name on the Account. The excess over $5,000 will be available on the ninth (9th) business day after the day we received your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury checks) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000 will not be available until the second business day after the day we receive your deposit.

Foreign Items – Items drawn on financial institutions located outside the United States are not subject to the Funds Availability Policy detailed above and are handled differently. U.S. Dollars - If the item is payable in U.S. Dollars, and meets our guidelines, we may accept it for deposit in your Savings Account and you agree that we will not make the funds available to you for a reasonable period sufficient to ensure payment from the foreign institution. Foreign Currency - If the funds are payable in other than U.S. Dollars, the item will be sent for payment via the collection method. Our handling fee will be payable from you at the time the item is presented for collection. Funds will be credited to your Account once it is received by us from the foreign institution. The currency exchange rate and fees imposed by the payer foreign institution will not be known to us when you present an item for collection and may vary greatly, so you understand and agree to those conditions before presenting a foreign item for collection.

Payment Order of Items to Your Account – We are permitted to pay items on your Account in the order of our choice. You agree that we may do so. When you perform transactions with your Debit Card, the funds are immediately withheld from the funds availability of your Account even if the debits have not yet been processed through your Account. Such holds may last for a couple of days and until the actual debits are received by us for processing. This may impair the payment of other debit items you have made. To avoid unnecessary fees or returned items, it is important to ensure that funds are readily available in your Account before making debit transactions.

WIRE TRANSFER AGREEMENT

The following terms shall apply to all wire transfers of funds (as defined by Federal Regulation J and Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code as set out in the Florida Statutes) to or from any of the member's Accounts at this Credit Union. To the extent the terms contained in this Agreement are different than those in any other agreement or terms of Accounts; this Agreement shall control and be deemed to modify such other agreement or terms of accounts.

1. If you request a funds transfer to be made or if a funds transfer is made to your Account, the Federal Reserve Board's FedWire may be used. Regulation J governs all FedWire Transfers and therefore, determines the rights and liabilities of the parties of the transfer.

2. All Automated Clearing House (ACH) payments are provisional. We may give you credit before we receive final settlement of the funds transfer. If we do not receive payment for the provisional credit granted to you, we might charge back to your Account any provisional credit that we have already given to you. In that event, you authorize us to take such sum from any Account in which you have an ownership interest or the right to withdraw.

3. Notice of funds transfer from a receipt of a funds transfer into your Account will be made by us on the following periodic statement of your Account. We are not obligated to provide you with next day notification of transfers to your Account. You may, of course, inquire between periodic statements regarding transfers you may have received. You agree to examine the periodic statement within fourteen (14) days after we make the Account statement available to you and immediately notify us of any discrepancy or error. If you fail to notify us within fourteen (14) days after we make the statement available to you shall discharge and relieve us from any liability of claims, demands or expenses (including attorney's fees) in connection with such discrepancy or error.

4. All funds transfer will be made according to our security procedures. Those security procedures are intended to verify that an order is authorized and detect errors in the transmission or content of the payment order. The security procedures involve a thorough identification of the requestor and a signed wire transfer authorization. These security procedures will also apply to any amendment or cancellation of a payment order. A payment order from the Account, verified by the security procedure is effective as your order, regardless of which Account owner authorized the order. We may give you notice of change in the security procedures. In this event, we shall have no obligation to accept any payment order from you or other authorized parties on the Account until you and the Credit Union agree in writing to an alternate security procedure.

5. If the beneficiary of a funds transfer is identified by name and an identifying number or account number, payments made to the beneficiary may be made on the basis of that identifying or account number even if the number identifies a person different from the named beneficiary. We will not be responsible for the amount of the transfer paid by means of a designated identification number or account number even if it goes to the wrong beneficiary.

6. If a payment order identifies an intermediary or beneficiary's financial institution only by an identifying number or account number, we may rely on that number as being the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's financial institution. If a payment order identifies an intermediary party or beneficiary's financial institution by both name and an identifying number, and the name and number identify different financial institutions, we and any receiving financial institution may rely on the identifying number as the proper identification of the intermediary party or beneficiary's financial institution. You agree to indemnify us for any loss or expense that result from our reliance on an incorrect identifying number or account number.

7. We are authorized to take the amount of such loss or expense from any Account in which you have an ownership interest or the right to withdraw. Any rate of interest that we may be obligated to pay as a penalty under Regulation J or Article 4A shall be equal to the dividend rate paid on the Account from which the funds transfer should have occurred or to which the proceeds of the funds transfer were or should have been deposited, whichever is lower. Our liability is limited to the payment of this interest. You agree that under no circumstances will we be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, remote or special losses or damages, including attorney's fees and costs.

8. We may establish or change the cut-off time for the receipt and processing of funds transfer requests, amendments, or cancellations. Unless you are notified of other times or other times are posted for various types of funds transfers, the cut-off time may be as early as 1:00 p.m. EST on each weekday that we are open and which is not a holiday. Payment orders, cancellations or amendments received after the applicable cut-off time may be treated as having been received on the following business day we are open and processed accordingly. Additionally, the cut-off time may be extended without notice to you if an intermediary or beneficiary institution is closed.

9. We are under no obligation to accept a cancellation or amendment to the funds transfer order received from you but may do so at our option. We may, at our option, choose not to carry out your funds transfer order, including cancellation or amendment of an order, that is not in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or if the transfer is prohibited by a court order garnishment, tax levy or the like, or we reasonably believe such transfer would result in a loss to us. We are not obligated to give you notice of such action, but notice may be given in your next periodic statement or as otherwise required by law. 10. Requests for funds transfers must be made in accordance with the rules and procedures that we have in place at the time of the request. We may charge you a fee for the transfer or other related services according to our Schedule of Fees at the time of the funds transfer order.

affect the liability you incurred prior to termination. You must keep your Account open to support the payment of any outstanding EFT transactions you made prior to termination.

Inactivity Fee – if there is no activity with your Debit Card for a period of twelve (12) months you may be charged a monthly Inactive Debit Card fee as set forth in our Schedule of Fees. To avoid such fee, you should contact us to terminate the card prior to the twelve (12) months inactivity deadline. You agree to pay the fees shown on our current Business Schedule of Fees and any future charges that may be approved by our Board of Directors for the use of EFTs. You authorize us to take any such fees from any Account in which you have an ownership interest or right to withdraw.

Reliability – We believe that the various means of accessing EFTs will prove to be reliable; however, certain means may not operate properly at all times. We, therefore, will not promise that our systems will always be available for your use. You promise not to attempt to make a transfer when a system tells you or another circumstance give you a reason to believe that the system is closed or not operating properly due to a technical or mechanical problem and is unable to make the transfer you requested. You agree that if we notice your Accounts being used in a way that is not consistent with your regular use, we may try to contact you to verify that the access device to the EFT is not being used by an unauthorized user. If we do not reach you, we may, in order to attempt avoidance against possible losses, choose to invalidate your access device the next time it is used. If we do, in fact, invalidate your access device, it may be revalidated. Contact us for the particulars involved in revalidating the device. However, you understand that we have no obligation to keep up with how the Account is usually used or to notify you if we notice unusual activity.

Liability – You will be liable for any authorized and unauthorized use of your Access Device and/or Card. If you authorize someone to use your Access Device and/or Card for any purpose at any time, then any use of the Access Device and/or Card by that person at any time thereafter is not unauthorized even if it exceeds the authority given. You agree that use by any employee or agent of yours is an authorized use.

Personal Identification Number (PIN) – To initiate transactions via a Debit Card, Home Banking, Bill Pay, and MoneyLine services, you must have a personal identification number (PIN). You agree not to tell your PIN to anyone, not to write the PIN on your Card or do anything else that would cause the Card or PIN to fall into the wrong hands. You agree also to tell us if you believe the Card or PIN has been stolen or lost. The fastest way to notify us is by calling our Member Service Center at 727.431.7680, 941.907.4000, 239.471.3560 or non-local 800.593.2274 Monday through Friday from 8:00 AM to 5:30 PM or 800.472.3272, 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. If you make a transfer, deposit or payment at an ATM terminal, you agree that the correct amount, in the event of a discrepancy with a written receipt or a deposit slip, will be the amount that we find in the envelope used to make the transaction. You agree that each transaction completed during normal Credit Union business hours will be posted immediately to your Account; transactions received after normal Credit Union business hours may be posted on our next regular business day. You further agree that all credits to your Account(s) from deposits you make are conditional until duly verified by us and that credit for non-cash Items is conditional until we can collect on the Items. If we cannot collect the amount of a non-cash Item, that amount will be deducted from your Account. You agree that the EFT system shall be used only for the type of EFTs we offer and to have access only to the Accounts that we have approved. If through some error the Card permits you to withdraw funds from an Account that you should not be allowed to use, we may charge the amount involved to an Account you are allowed to use. In addition to the terms and conditions listed above, you agree that any accompanying Electronic Funds Transfer Disclosure statement shall cover EFTs made by you. This Agreement and all transactions under this Agreement will be governed by Florida and applicable federal laws.

You cannot use MoneyLine, Home Banking, or Bill Pay services without a PIN.

Account Access – Indicated below are types of Electronic Fund Transfers we are capable of handling, some of which may not apply to your Account. Please read this disclosure carefully because it tells you your rights and obligations for the transactions listed. You should keep this notice for future reference. The following types of transactions may be made with your Account:

1. Pre-authorized credits made directly from other persons into your Account. Examples of these transactions include, but are not limited to arrangements for certain direct deposits (such as Government Benefits, Invoices, payrolls, etc.,) to be accepted into your Checking, Money Market, or Savings Account(s).
2. Pre-authorized debits through your account as payment for a third party. These pre-authorized transactions may be a one time occurrence or may recur as directed by you. These transfers may use the Automated Clearing House (ACH) or other payments network. Your authorization to a third party to make this type of transfer can occur in a number of ways. In some cases, your authorization can occur when the merchant posts a sign informing you of their policy. In all cases, this type of transaction will require you to provide the third party with your Account number, the Credit Union's name and routing number. This information can be found on the bottom of your personalized checks as well as on the deposit slips. Thus, you should only provide your account information (whether over the phone, the Internet, or via some other method) to trusted third parties whom you have authorized to initiate these pre-authorized debits. Examples are pre-authorized payments you arrange with third parties to pay recurring bills from your Checking or Savings Account(s) or electronic check conversions which are when you authorize a merchant or another payee to make a one time electronic version of one of your check and/or a fee to pay for a purchase or bill. You may also authorize merchants to electronically process a debit to your Account for a returned check fee. You are considered to have authorized these electronically made debits if you complete the transaction after being told (orally or by a notice posted or sent to you) that the debit may be processed electronically or if you sign a written authorization. If you wish to cancel a pre-authorized credit or debit, you must notify the Credit Union at least thirty (30) days prior to the next scheduled date of any such transaction. You agree that the Credit Union may return any pre-authorized credit on the order of the sending party after it has been deposited in your Account, and you agree to hold the Credit Union harmless from any consequences of such return. Upon the filing of bankruptcy, if you fail to cancel any preauthorized credit authorization, you agree that any payments which you make under your existing authorization on file are voluntary payments and you instruct the depositor and us to make and apply pre-authorized credits in accordance with your authorization on file with us.

If you are in the business of depositing remotely created checks based on the authorization of others, you must obtain the Credit Union's prior express written consent to deposit those checks in your Account.

If you have a Savings Account only, you will receive a statement for every month showing a pre-authorized credit or debit. If there is not a pre-authorized transaction in a particular month, you will receive a statement at least quarterly. Our statements are accessible electronically at no cost to you and require you to register with our e-Statement service. At your request, we will mail your statement via the U.S. Post office and you agree that there is a cost associated with mailing statements as set forth on our Schedule of Fees.

LIMITATIONS ON FREQUENCY OF TRANSFERS BY ACCOUNT TYPE

In accordance with Regulation D, withdrawals and transfers from Savings and Money Market Accounts are restricted to six (6) transactions per monthly statement cycle (including without limitation, preauthorized, automatic or telephonic transfers or withdrawals, and electronic banking transfers between your Accounts with us), of which no more than three (3) can be made by check, draft, Debit Card or similar order made by you and payable to a third party. Non-restricted transactions are withdrawals or transfers between your Accounts at Achieva if done in person, by mail, messenger, or ATM. Also non-restricted are withdrawals that you request by telephone via a check made to you and mailed to you. Transfers from your Account(s) for the purpose of repaying an Achieva loan or credit card are also unrestricted. If you exceed the transfers limitation set forth above, excess transactions may be denied and/or returned unpaid and a return fee may be imposed. Your Account(s) may also be subject to transfer to a non-restricted account type or closure if frequently used for excessive restricted transactions.
